Enclosures: Lr. No. 52197/52-5-Adm dated 3--3--1953. 195 .

Sir

Sub: Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments(Adm) Department - Office of the Assistant Commissioner - Anantapur - Additional post of lower division Inspector - Work of inspecting religious institution in Sandur and gathering particulars about the trustees and the properties- Sanction requested.

Since the merger of Sandur into the State of Madras, the Madras Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1951, applies to all Hindu Religious Enstitutions in Sandur..There was no Act in the erstwhile Sandur State corresponding to the Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act under which a regularly constituted authority could exercise control and supervision over the affairs of Hindu Religious institutions. The practice followed by the Sandur Durbar is stated to be conventional. There are no records pertaining to these institutions with the Collector of Bellary, except a notification dated 5-2-1941 which required the trustees of all religious institutions, to deposit the cash, jewels and other valuables into the treasury. A report from the Assistant Commissioner, Anantapur, reveals that there are no legally constituted trustees for any of the Hindu Religious institutions in Sandur.

Under the provisions of Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, trustees have to be appointed, budgets and registers of properties have to be obtained and instructions issued to the trustees for the proper management of the institutions. A lot of preliminary work and inspection has to be done.

Sandur is a hilly area, the villages being scattered at distant places with no proper communication from one village to another. Most of the villages are not connected by public conveyance. The work is arduous and difficult and has to be completed in a short time. It is not possible for the present Inspector of Bellary district who is in charge of the entire district and who has to attend to the important work of attending the public auction of the leases of lands in various parts of the district and conducting of suits that have come to the stage of trial in the sub-Court, Bellary, to attend to the work relating to the religious institutions in Sandur State also.

In these circumstances I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction a temporary post of lower division Inspector in the scale of Rs.45--3--60-2-90/- for a period of 3 months.

Yours faithfully,

Commissioner.
